

Horizon below a Big Sky

Mixed Media Workshop with Scott Euden

Saturday 4th October 2025

10am – 4pm

Students will develop and complete a dynamic landscape painting focusing on the horizon as motif below a dramatic sky. Using a variety of painting and mark-making techniques to develop the work with an expressive approach. Suitable for developing artists and complete novices. This will be a relaxed and engaging workshop designed to free up your approaches to painting and to enjoy the process of creating through imaginative mark-making.

Please bring along:

Acrylic paint (to include primary colours & black and white)
A range of brushes
Water spray bottle
Watercolour sketchbook / practise paper (half a dozen pieces)
Thick water colour paper approx A2 x 2
Canvas board approx A2 x 1